Earnest D. Clark, Pastor

The Sabbath School lessons for the entire fourth quarter has been from the book of Galations "General Introduction Summarized

Paul's Epistle to the Galations is a small book, only six chapters but a book large with meaning to the Christian church. The book of Galations requires close study but its message of Justification through faith in Christ's righteousness, as opposed to justification by law keeping is the very heart of Christianity. There has been considerable discussion throughout the decades as to the indenity of the law in Galations. Jewish teachers who urged upon the Gentile converts the observance of the ceremonial laws by so doing Christ the true foundation, was virtually renunciated for the obsolete ceremonies of Judaism.

Paul's letter to the Galatians was his answer to the claims of these Judaizers. In his forceful style he explained the sublime truth that men are justified by faith in Jesus Christ, not by their compliance with legal requirements. Judaizers claimed men would have to do something to earn justification specifically they would have to comply with the legal requirements of the Jewish religion. Paul said No: Justification comes as a free gift from God, not as a man's due because he has done something to merit it. The idea that a man could do something to earn justification makes Christ's death on the cross superfluous. That is why in Gal. 6:14 Paul exclaims, "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Paul makes clear in Gal. 5' and 6 a man who has already found justifiedhs in Christ will live by the law of Christ. He will faithfully comply with all Christ requires of him, not as a means to salvation, but because of his soul- consuming love for Christ Then and only then will the glorious fruit of the Spirit reach maturity in his life. As Paul said, "For the love of Christ constraineth us. 2 Cor. 5:14
